TIE IT, RIPLEY—KILLS BAMA COP, IS ACQUITTED

(BIRMINGHAM, Oct. 21. (ANP))—Willie B. McShan was exonerated by a jury Tuesday on a direct verdict of the murder of Thomas Owens, white, special agent of the Central of Georgia railroad. This is one of the few times in this area when a Negro charged with murdering an officer has been acquitted.

Judge Robert J. Wheeler ordered the verdict of not guilty on the ground there was no evidence showing that McShan fired the shot that killed Owens during a gun battle on a railroad slag car Sept. 11. At that time Special Agent William A. Johnson, Jr., was wounded and Orange Smith, a companion of McShan was slain. McShan was slightly wounded.

However, the defendant must face trial on charges of assault and battery against Johnson. McShan was defended by a court appointed attorney, W. M. Russell, white.

WHITE SOUTHERN WOMEN INDICT LYNCHING EVIL

(YOUNG HARRIS, Ga., Oct. 21. (ANP))—Six hundred students of Young Harris College this morning applauded a vigorous indictment of lynching on behalf of more than 5,000 Georgia white women organized as a branch of the Association and delivered by Mrs. M. E. Tilly of Atlanta, a member of the Association and regional conference secretary of Woman's Work of the M. E. Church South. Many of the townspeople also attended the meeting which was held in the chapel of the college. At the conclusion students and visitors crowded round the speaker to express their interest and appreciation.

The meeting here was one of a series which the association is holding in all the colleges of the state. Other speakers in the campaign are Mrs. W. A. Turner, of Newnan, prominent in the Council of the Southern Presbyterian church, and Mrs. L. O. Turner, of Atlanta, an official of the Church of the Disciples of Christ.

The Association of Southern Women for the Prevention of Lynching was organized in 1930 and now has a signed membership of nearly 40,000 women in more than a thousand counties in the southern states. Each of these women has personally signed a repudiation of lynching "as a protection to Southern womanhood," and has pledged herself to do everything possible "to create a public opinion in the South which will not for any reason whatever condone lynching or mob violence." Through the efforts of these women more than a thousand sheriffs of the law have signed a similar pledge.

Columbia Line Extension Set

Plans are nearing completion for the extension of the Columbia trolley line to supplant the present Feeder Bus system, it was revealed late last week by Frank R. Beckwith, attorney representing a group of citizens of the Northeast section of the city in proceedings before the Public Service Commission.

Mr. Beckwith disclosed the arrangements were agreed upon in a

PROBES POLICE BRUTALITY CHARGE

Survives 3 Marriages, Sold 4 Times as Slave; Leads Quiet Life at 125

(BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Oct. 21.—Born in Africa, brought to this country into slavery at the age of three, nearly forty years old at the outbreak of the Civil war, Jim Johnson, at 125, is believed to be the oldest person in the south receiving Social Security benefits. Johnson spent more than a third of his life in slavery and was sold four times.

When 97, Mr. Johnson says, he was married for the third time and a son, now 37, was born of this union. He has cut his third set of teeth, he says, and although his eyesight is failing he insists that it gets better daily. Friends who share his little two-room cabin feed and care for him; he seldom goes far from home now.

Brownsville citizens signed affidavits stating that they have him for the past fifty years say he appeared to be about seventy-five at that time. In 1887 Mr. Johnson's children were grown, married and families of their own, resident nearby. He has lived for the past six or five years in a little cabin which he built himself.

Sold three times before the civil war, Mr. Johnson says a man, Daniel Campbell bought him and used him as a coach driver. Twenty-five years later, the Civil war began and Mr. Johnson took care of his owner's farm; later he substituted for him in the army.

Upon being emancipated, Mr. Johnson went to Tennessee, taking twenty-five colored families with him.

500 Ga. Farmers

Burn School, Beat 15 After Slaying Confessed

(SMYRNA, Ga., Oct. 21. — Fear that there may be grave repercussions of the Anti-Race festival, which flared here Tuesday was expressed here following attacks upon fifteen persons by white farmers and mill hands. Thirteen burned a colored school, stopped an Atlanta-Marietta trolley and stoned or beat colored passengers with sticks. Women were reported to have been members of the mob. The attacks followed the alleged confession of a colored man that he beat to death a farmer and his daughter here. The man was rushed to Atlanta, twelve miles away, for safe keeping, but the mob threatened to march there. Nearly fifty state and county officers patrolled the vicinity in order to prevent further outbreaks.

LARCENY CASE JUDGMENT HELD

Eugene Burton, 45 years old, Sunday school superintendent of Mt. Paran Baptist church, had judgment in a larceny case withheld against him last Saturday morning and his youthful assistant Thomas Turner, 17, 220 McClean place, was fined $1 and costs with thirty days in jail, all of which were suspended by Municipal Judge Karabell.

Mr. Burton who operates a truck in which he hauls trash from stores and restaurants was arrested by Officers Jesse Hadley and Preston Hester when Bernard Cohen, 38, 2225 N. Illinois street, owner of a downtown drugstore, told them that Burton and Turner had stolen merchandise from his store on the pretext of removing the trash as was customary. Cohen said that he had been missing articles for some time and when his suspicions were aroused he made a check-up on the merchandise just before the trash was removed. When Burton and Turner left, Cohen said, he missed cigars valued in boxes at $14 and called police who recovered them off the truck.

Police searched both men's homes but found nothing else that could be identified by the druggist as having come from his store.

Arrest Edgar Brown As 20,000 Women Riot for Char Jobs at D. C.

(WASHINGTON, Oct. 21. (ANP))—Charged with "disorderly conduct," Edgar Brown, head of the United Government employees, was arrested Wednesday as 20,000 women, a majority of them colored, staged a mild riot for 2,000 applications for jobs as federal charwomen. The jobs, which pay $1,080 yearly, are at present nonexistent.

The stampede reached such proportions that the civil service commission suspended distribution of applications after 1,500 had been given out. Police reserves were called to quell the women, several of whom were injured. Traffic had to be detoured.

Brown was arrested at the height of the trouble by Policeman

D. H. Mayo, white, on orders of Capt. Oscar Letterman. Mayo said Brown resisted him when he tried to move him from the crowd. He posted a $25 bond and after denying the charge asked for a police court hearing.

Investigation of Case In WPA Worker's Beating

(Editorial, Page 10)

A thorough probe into circumstances surrounding the manner in which James Hart, 39, 510 Bright st., WPA worker, received wounds on the head and face which required several stitches in each, has been launched and will continue until he has the facts, Michael F. Morrissey, chief of police, told a RECORD-ER writer Wednesday.

Hart, who is believed to be suffering from a fractured jaw and probable concussion, was examined early this week to establish the extent of his injuries. The doctor's report was not available at press time. Hart was slated on vagrancy, speeding, reckless driving, carrying concealed weapons and resisting an officer.

Large delegations of outraged citizens have ranged themselves solidly behind Hart and have urged through his counsel and the press that full justice be done.

Hart was seized and dragged from his car in the 800 block Indiana avenue last Saturday morning about 3:25 as he approached the scene of a cutting when the police were investigating, witnesses say.

In attempting to drive around the scene of the disturbance, Hart bumped a cruiser car, 39, Ford coach, license 126039, parked on the north side of the street, but little

Aid Sought In Drive for Jobs

A survey conducted among stores on the west side shows that chain stores employ colored help, the East End Society club told members as it opened the second week of its drive for jobs among business places on the east side.

Petitions are being circulated and all persons are asked to sign them as the act may mean that neighborhood children and adults will have a better chance for employment. Following is a statement which the club released containing their approach to the question.

"There isn't any need for us to send our colored children to school; unless we cooperate for such improvements in our neighborhoods. The white man can send his son or daughter to school and when they have finished he can employ his own child because he has a business establishment. We are going to notify the stores about our employment drive and tell them what to do if they want our trade.

"If every one started trading at the store in your neighborhood that employs colored persons and the Negro store it would soon run the other merchants out of business or start the employing colored.

"The reason our race is at a standstill now, is because we as a group will not cooperate. Our club has been spending a great deal of time trying to figure some way to better our community. If our campaign is a success, and I am sure it will be, it might mean jobs for some grown-ups because there will

JAMES HART

Atty. Henry J. Richardson, Jr., counsel for Hart, stated:

"During my ten years of practice I have handled thousands of cases in this city, but the Hart case from preliminary investigation is the most vicious case of malicious brutality and beastly conduct on the part of officers I have ever heard of.

The evidence I have, definitely proves that very law and rule of decency-honor and human rights of the prisoner were violated by the officers making the arrest. Their conduct is a disgrace to the public department and to the peace and dignity of this city.

From evidence in hand I doubt the guilt of Hart and under no stretch of the imagination can I conceive the necessity of six police officers using undue force and beating a non-resisting prisoner to a pulp under the pretense of subduing him.

In all cases the prisoner has some rights, constitutional and human, which even a vicious and prejudiced police officer must respect. My investigation of this case is not complete and after it is, I shall use every legal and human method possible to see that justice is done and the guilty officers and all concerned are charged with and answer for their conduct in this nasty mess to the fullest extent of the law; even to the extent of filing charges before the Grand Jury.

The flagrant discourtesy and vicious methods resorted to by certain police officers in this city must be abated wherein the rights of the least of our citizens are protected and respected."

William Chaplin, 34, 315 S. Lyons street, white, driver of the truck, was not held.

Young Martin is survived by both parents, Carroll D. and Pearl Martin and ten sisters and brothers, Ella M., Harold, Dudley, James, Leonard, Charles, Frances B., Joana, Ernest, and Betty Jean Martin, all of this city. Burial was at Woodhaven cemetery.

EAST END TRUCK VICTIM BURIED

Final rites were conducted from the chapel of the King and King funeral home Wednesday afternoon for Earl Martin, 1440 Cornell avenue, 12-year-old pupil of Public School No. 26, who was killed when struck by a truck last Friday night.

The Martin boy apparently jumped on a truck at 22nd and College avenue loaded with chairs being brought from a political meeting nearby and fell, the right rear dual wheel running over him. Deputy Coroner Dr. Robert R. Booher, investigated and sent the body to the city morgue where further inves-

Cooperation in Move To Aid Northside

Revision of plans for the proposed northside community house is now possible because of money now available, A. C. Sallee, park board director said. Citizens had previously protested that present plans and facilities would be too far inadequate to serve properly the large area and hundreds of families of the community.

The Federation of Northside civic clubs, an organization numbering many aggressive citizens and parents on the northside, has been interested in establishing a means of helping to provide recreational facilities for a community barren of such a program.

Citizens interested in the project are expected to meet with officials of the park board for further discussion of the proposed changes, Mr. Sallee said.

Among things which the citizens ask are: greatly increased space for dressing rooms; showers; basketball floor, and committee rooms, a full basement with play and game rooms, a rear entrance and all other items which will make for a wide and much-needed community recreational program.

To be located at Twenty-fourth and Northwestern avenue, the structure is to be of attractive brick, and work is expected to begin as soon as final plans have been approved.

Bursting Bonds?-- Detective Jails Valiant Lawyer

A diminutive lawyer fought so valiantly and forcefully for his client Tuesday morning that he eventually ended up in a predicament that was in some ways equal to that of the defendant.

James C. Hawkins, veteran police court attorney, was arrested by Detective Sergeant Ferdinand Holt when he disagreed with the amount of bond placed on his client by Special Judge Joe Conner as the result of damaging testimony given by Holt.

The whole case had its inception weeks ago when Raymond Brown, 24, 603 1/2 W. 11th st., and Emmett Stone, 1015 Michigan st., were identified by Charles Warfield, 1014 W. Walnut st., as the men who robbed him, taking a pair of glasses, a three piece suit, and other belongings including $5.00 after having followed him to the 200 block N. Senate avenue.

Arrested as suspicious vagrants they were later related by detective Holt for robbery and Brown employed Hawkins for counsel. Tuesday morning in Judge John L. McNellis' court Brown was not represented by his counsel and Sergeant Holt went in search of Hawkins so as to give his client an "even break." When Hawkins finally did appear and discussed the case with the court and Holt testified Brown was bound to the grand jury under a reduced bond of $500 upon the requests of his attorney.

Objects to $5,000 Bond

On the outside of the court room near the clerk's window, Hawkins allegedly remarked to Holt that it was a D-m-n shame that a bond like $5,000 should ever be put on a man. Holt explained that the judge placed the bonds and not he.

Hawkins demanded that Holt not shake his finger in his face and Holt said, "Here it is and I'll rock you up besides if you keep bothering me, Hawkins mumbled something and Holt said, "You are under arrest." "Alright, I'll go."

Hawkins was immediately released under $11 cash bond.

Ky. Failure to Provide Equal Accommodations Hit; Officials Confer

(LOUISVILLE, Oct. 21. — (By Hazel Browne Williams for ANP))—An old law enacted by the Kentucky legislature in 1892 was dug up recently by Charles W. Anderson, Jr., Louisville attorney lone, Negro member of the Kentucky legislature and chairman of the N. A. A. C. P. Legal Redress committee, in the fight of that organization to obtain improved and equal accommodations for the Negro traveling public in Kentucky.

Mr. Anderson made his attack against the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad for the failure of the company to provide air-conditioned coaches on its trains running between Louisville and Ashland, for colored passengers though providing such service for whites, and thus compelling the Negro traveling public to ride in coaches uncomfortable by reason of severe summer heat, making it necessary to raise their windows and suffer further offensive and disagreeable traveling conditions such as smoke, dust and cinders.

Under the law enacted in 1892, Mr. Anderson found that it was a misdemeanor under sections 796 and 797 of Carroll's Kentucky statutes for any railroad to fail, refuse or neglect to provide or offer the same type of quality, convenience or accommodations in cars or coaches for all passengers;

Jitterbugs Jam Vender for Coins

Thieves who had a flare for music entered the restaurant of George Cushingberry, 38, 328 Darnell st., at 1334 N. West st., sometime between 1 a. m., and 7 a. m., Friday through a window by removing a board and took an undetermined amount of nickels out of the electric victrola.

A 14-year-old, delinquent youth admitted burglarizing the home of Mrs. Thelma Laffey, 1427 Bellefontaine st., and was ordered into the crime prevention bureau by police, last Friday.

Because he liked to hear the shriek of sirens and see the first-aid truck take corners at breakneck speed, a delinquent, Arthur Smith, 40, 1033 N. Traub st., turned in a false alarm at 10th and Locke sts., early this week and was arrested on a vagrancy charge by detective Jacobs and Chambers. He admitted the "job" and said he did it for a thrill.

John Chamberlain, 19, and Leon Washington, 19, both of whom lived at 722 N. West st., arrested on vagrancy warrants by Officers Davenport and Butler were released.

ASK LA. GOVERNOR FOR ACTION

18, in the sixth lynching of the year, in order to whip up the lynching spirit, Williams was accused of criminally attacking one or two white girls and murdering a white man. After the lynching, it was admitted that the boy did not commit a sex offense. He is said to have beaten a girl and to have killed the man.

There was not proof whatsoever that Williams was guilty of any crime. He had not been arrested and charged with murder. The mob carried on a man hunt for two days and finally cornered Williams in a smokehouse. Without giving him any chance for his life, he was hanged and hot while Sheriff Bryan Thigpen stood nearby.

Press reports try to paint Sheriff Thigpen as having tried to stop the mob, but the Associated Press account hints strongly of collasion between the sheriff and the mob when it declares:

"Finally it was agreed that the mob would march the Negro through the woods and surrender him to officers on a side road. But when he reached the road, the sheriff said, he heard shots. The relatives of the girl whom Williams is said to have beaten are reported as having pleaded with the mob not to harm the boy.

Lynchings this year total six, according to N. A. A. C. P. figures, and the association made public a letter it had addressed to Tuskegee Institute, enclosing its records of lynchings in Rolling Fork, Miss., Canton, Miss., Columbus, Miss., Arabi, Ga., and Perry, Fla. Tuskegee reported the Rustan lynching as the third of the year. The association has been keeping a special record since 1935 on what the states have done about lynching. In 1935, during the short filibuster at the end of April, the association was made repeatedly in the Senate, and especially by Senator William E. Borah, that the states were acting against lynching and could solve the problem without a federal law.

Despite the fact that in all the history of lynching there have been convictions in only eight-tenths of one per cent of the cases, the N. O. A. C. P. started its new record of state activity in 1935 just to show present day debaters. Since that time to date not a single state in which there has been a lynching has done anything about the crime.

Last January at the invitation of Senator Kenneth McKellar of Tennessee, the governors of southern states sent wires to Washington pledging state action against mobs. But since that time lynchings have occurred in Mississippi, Georgia, Florida and Louisiana and the governors of these states have done nothing to catch or punish lynch-ers.

A new federal anti-lynching bill will be introduced in both houses of the new congress which convenes in January, 1939, the N. A. A. C. P. announced.

PROBES POLICE

If any damage was done, as his car was moving very slowly.

Officers assigned the cruiser paid no attention but Sergeant Arch Ball, when he reached the road, the street, hailed the man from the car and struck him. Hart says a gun was taken from the front seat of the car.

When the crowd began grumbling about the harsh and unwarranted handling given Hart, police loaded him into a car and TOOK HIM TO CITY HOSPITAL FOR TREATMENT. Eye-witnesses of the affair declare Hart was not hurt in the slight bump as the cars touched, a statement Hart himself makes. Why, then, citizens have asked, was it necessary to take Hart to City hospital?

On the way to the hospital, police officers beat him in the back of the car, Hart says, and hustled him into a room after they arrived. During the hour which was spent there, he says that he was beaten and kicked by several police, about five. Because his face was so badly swollen, he could hardly see exactly. (Records show that six or more officers were involved, one of whom, Myers, is said to have stopped Hart several nights previous and to have been abusive and insulting, without cause, ordering another officer to "shoot that N—r if he runs.")

While at City hospital, officers and a woman attaché demanded that he pay for medical service, Hart says, and he was beaten when he refused, saying that money he had was to be used buying groceries. When he could stand their beating no longer, he gave them the money, four dollars, he says, and all but Myers left him.

"I didn't get you the other night but I will now," Officer Myers, assigned at the time to hospital duty, said, Hart asserted. He then struck him several times, Hart says.

Three dollars of the money taken from Hart were returned and the other dollar is being checked by order of Dr. Charles Myers, superintendent. No record of the money is said to have existed at City hospital despite its being refunded in part by a City hospital cashier.

Hart's trial before Judge Charles J. Karabell was continued until Wednesday and another continuance was granted when the case was called on that day. Attorney Henry J. Richardson, Jr., former member of the Indiana Legislature and counsel for Hart, declared it to be one of the most vicious cases he had heard of in ten years' practice.

When seen about mid-morning Saturday, Hart's face was badly swollen, his eyes were bloodshot, his face and head were patched, and his shirt and a sweater he was wearing were heavily crusted and soaked with blood.

Sergeant Arch Ball told a Recorder writer that this was the first squawk he had ever had charging him with being unfair. Many persons in this community declare the officer has a nasty reputation for beating persons, many of whom called for the former's charges.

Chief Morrissey told a Recorder writer that he does not favor brutality in police relations with the public and that all efforts will be made to learn the facts of the case. Proper action will be taken, according to the facts disclosed he said.

A citizens committee, organizations and the NAACP are awaiting developments in the case before acting.

To Mass Immigration Of Race Americans

MONROVIA, Liberia, Oct. 21. (AP)—President Edwin Barclay has informally requested Lester A. Walton, the American Minister at Monrovia, to advise the United States government that while the Liberian government "looks with favor on the settling of American Negroes in the African republic, present day conditions will not permit immigration on a large scale." Less than 400 families could be yearly integrated into Liberian life without severely dislocating its economic and social structure, President Barclay said.

The report was also emphatically denied that a Liberian official during a visit this year to the United States approved of a "back to Africa movement." Any immigration plan would first have to receive the sanction of the Liberian government, it was pointed out. Assuming that the new law would be agriculturalist, before their arrival the Liberian government would consider it a duty to allocate land and provide housing facilities. Age, good health and the possession of a specific amount of funds would be essential requisites for entrance into Liberia. Apart from agriculturalists, there are opportunities afforded in Liberia for trained artisans, missionary physicians and nurses, teachers and also business men with some capital and experience.

Growing out of published reports in the press of the United States that a movement is on foot to send millions of American Negroes to Liberia, the Liberian government has received numerous inquiries on the subject.

FAILURE TO PROVIDE

The milling crowd was Mrs. Carrie Fields, who rushed to casualty hospital. Later the hospital sent an ambulance to the scene and treated several others.

As early as 8 p. m. Tuesday, applicants began forming in line outside the building. Milk crates, old boxes and newspapers were placed on the sidewalks. Some of the job seekers sat through the night while others slept on the sidewalk on papers.

The stampede began without notice while applications were being received. It is believed to have been started by those in the rear seeking to push their way forward. The crowd snapped the strong ropes stretched by police to hold the women in check. Then these ropes broke, the doors to the application rooms were shattered and the civil service officials had to be taken from the vicinity in a patrol wagon.

It was explained that present job lists are sufficient to take care of any vacancies which might occur during the next year. The applications Wednesday were to strengthen the list.

After the distribution was halted, the women refused to vacate the vicinity for several hours, believing the civil service workers would return. Nearly 200 women remained until dark that night.

ed this week by Detective John R. Glenn as fugitives from justice and returned to East St. Louis, Illinois.

Stabbed three times in the stomach, and three times in the back with a knife, William Hammond, 30 years old, 714 W. Vermont st., is in a serious condition at the City hospital after having been attacked by Joe Thurman, address unknown, but who is crippled in his right leg and weighs about 165 pounds being dark complexioned.

Hammond is to face charges of assault and battery with intent to kill. Police are looking for a hobo on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill. James E. Evans, 57, 724 Blake st., apt. 38, was struck on the head with a two-by-four piece of lumber after he allegedly pulled a knife on William Taylor, 48, 609 Blackford st. Witness said that Taylor had been here only a few days coming from some part of Kentucky. Evans was held on a vagrancy charge.

Final rites were conducted from the Jacobs Brothers funeral home this week for Mammie Overton, forty-five, 2315 Columbia avenue, victim of an automobile accident. Witness said that Overton had jumped from a truck and when he dodged a car ran into the path of another being driven by Fred Wolsington, white, 10005 Churchman avenue, in Churchman house, South Bend.

Thieves who broke into the home of Davis Hogan, 1112 N. Senate avenue, rear, by breaking a rear door glass stole $15 in cash, he reported at police headquarters.

When Vince Dawson, 48 years old, living at 1144 N. Missouri st., fell asleep on Indiana avenue late one night this week, north of Michigan st., he was stripped of his clothes and when he awoke, missed belongings and cash estimated at $40.

Three youths from the eastside of town were ordered into the crime prevention bureau to discuss why they stole bread from a bakery with Sergeant Charles Weddle, head of that department. Police found bread in one boy's home.

An attempt to take her own life proved futile this week to Mrs. Lucy Hill, 24, 940 Edgemont st. Her husband, E. Hill, 24, was awakened by her cries of being ill late Sunday night and found that she had taken some anti-pain killer and a small quantity of alcohol.

She was treated at City hospital and returned home. Alberta Taylor, 18, was arrested by police on a larceny warrant that had been pending for several weeks. Mrs. Ruth Holpen, 38, white, 3134 Central avenue, saw the Taylor woman and told police that it was the first time she had seen her since she took $7.00 in March while employed at her Holpen home.

Homicide detectives are investigating the mysterious shooting of Augustus Wilkins, 58, 313 Bright st., who staggered into his own home late Friday night and told his brother, Robert, that he had been the victim of someone who hid and fired on him with a revolver.

Wilkins was suffering from a bullet wound in the left shoulder and the left elbow. Wilkins, who admitted that he had been drinking in a beer tavern on Blake st., was sent to City hospital in an ambulance and slated for vagrancy with high bond.

George Allen, 46, 713 W. 13th st., apt. 7, argued with his girl friend, Wilma Allen, 39, at Drake and Oregon, and she stabbed him between the shoulder blades and fled.

notified the officers of the company and their attorneys of his intention to test out the law in the courts they requested a personal interview with him before his taking such drastic steps and after a lengthy conference agreed to withhold legal action or prosecution until warm weather or nine months, which would allow the company time to make every effort to compete air-conditioning of all equipment on its trains by next May.

Mr. Anderson had obtained witnesses in case of trial of more than 30 persons, among them students of Kentucky State college, residents of Frankfort, Lexington, and Louisville who had been fare-paying passengers on the trains of the Chesapeake and Ohio during the summer and beginning with September.

1,000 LONGSHOREMEN STRIKE

AT SAVANNAH
SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 21. (AP)—One thousand longshoremen began a strike this week for improved working conditions and better pay. According to V. E. Townsend, southern representatives will strike in Charleston and Jacksonville unless similar demands are met.

Alabama Denies Scottsboro Boys Pardon

MONTGOMERY, Oct. 21. (ANP)—After hearing arguments for and against the release of Andy Wright, Charlie Weems, and Clarence Norris, three of the youths convicted in the Scottsboro case, the Alabama pardon board this week denied petitions for their freedom. Maurice Shapiro, New York lawyer, pleaded for the boys and former Sen. J. Thomas Meffin gave the opposing arguments.

Hedin objected to the written arguments which the board had requested and said: "If the board pardons these Negroes, its members won't be safe in their own homes." He said he had journeyed all the way from his home in Lafayette to oppose the boys' pleas, and told reporters he would "make a speech every chance I get" to oppose the release of the Scottsboro defendants.

CHARGE FLORIDA W. P. A. SHUNTS NEGRO CASES

TAMPA, Fla., Oct. 14. — Complaints against the discrimination practiced by officials of the local W. P. A. set-up in registering Negroes for work relief in the city by limiting registration to two or three hours one day a week, were voiced here this week by the local branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

According to association reports, whites are given three days for registration, while Negroes have a few hours one day in the week, thus causing suffering due to delay in having their cases certified.

NAACP SCORES HOUSING EVILS AT ALL MEET

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 31. (ANP)—When the Illinois State Conference of the N. A. A. C. P. held its conference at Springfield Sunday, October 9, an extensive round table program and discussion was participated in by the delegates. The subject was the housing problem of restrictive covenants. As a result of this discussion, a statewide campaign was initiated to secure passage of a law by the next general assembly which would prohibit restrictive covenants and make them contrary to public policy.

It was shown that private restrictive pacts between white property owners, who agree among themselves that they will not rent or sell to Negroes, are a "subterfuge" which allows individuals to do indirectly what the various governmental sovereignties cannot lawfully do.

Several delegates further pointed out that the cause of high rents and poor housing accommodations for Negroes, in urban communities is primarily the result of the operation of these private restrictive agreements among white property owners which, in fact, confine the Negro population to very small areas with inadequate housing accommodations.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Irvin C. Mollison, Chicago; 1st Vice President, A. M. McNeal, Chicago; 2nd Vice President, Edward Jacobs, Decatur; 3rd Vice President, A. J. Henderson, Bloomington; Secretary, Alma L. Webster, Springfield; Assistant Secretary, Martha Bowden, Rockford; Treasurer, N. J. Henderson, Bloomington.

The directors are to be: Dr. D. E. Webster, Springfield; Bryant A. Hammond, Chicago; Atty. Nelson Willis, Danville; Dr. Richard S. Grant, Rockford; Charles D. Murray, Chicago; Edwin B. Jourdain, Evanston; and Roy Lyons, Gales-

HIGH COURT TO REVIEW MO. U. JIM CROW CASE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 21. —The United States supreme court on Monday, October 10, granted the petition of Lloyd Gaines, 26-year-old St. Louis, Mo., student for a writ of certiorari, which permits a review of his case against the University of Missouri before the court.

In September, 1936, the University of Missouri refused Gaines' application for admission to its law school. Through N. A. A. C. P. attorneys Charles H. Houston, Sidney R. Redmond, and Henry D. Egan, Gaines filed a petition for a writ of mandamus before the circuit court of Missouri, January 24, 1936, to compel the university to admit him. A new suit was filed March 27, 1936.

In answer to this suit the university said that Lincoln university, (Mo.) of which Gaines is a graduate, was not an accredited school, hence he could not qualify for entrance to the law school. The circuit court of Missouri upheld the university in this contention.

Denying the court's assertion that Lincoln university is not accredited, and basing their argument on the ground that Negroes are denied higher educational opportunities in Missouri equal to the opportunities of whites, attorneys for Gaines appealed the case to the state supreme court, which upheld the lower court.

It is a review of this court's decision that the United States supreme court has granted. The case marks the eleventh appeal of a case by the N. A. A. C. P. to the highest court in the land. The association has won all but one of the ten previous appeals before the high court.

NEW RACE JUROR PROTECTED BY TEXAS SHERIFF

DALLAS, Texas, Oct. 21. — Police protection is being given W. I. Dickson, 46, a colored shoe repairman who was summoned for jury duty here October 10. Mr. Dickson was the first Negro to be called since the assault Sept. 28, upon Dr. G. F. Porter, president of Wiley junior college, and prospective juror, who was thrown down the courthouse steps by two white hoodlums, when he refused to be "excused" from serving at the suggestion of court officials.

Mr. Dickson and James Childs, also colored, wrote registered letters to Sheriff Smoot Schmid informing him they had been called for jury service and desired protection. They got it, but Childs took his day's fee and left.

White jurors glared at Dickson and mutterings were heard, but the sheriff quieted everything down. Dickson, who lives at 2109 Allen, said he wanted to serve on a jury and see how courts work. He paid no attention to the glares.

Thurgood Marshall, N. A. A. C. P. attorney, who is here investigating the Porter case, had no comment to make except to say that the investigation is proceeding according to plan.

Texas Rangers Probe Porter Jury Case

DALLAS, Texas, Oct. 21. — It was announced here by the morning papers that the famous Texas Rangers were making an investigation of the assault on Dr. G. F. Porter who was called for jury service here Sept. 28.

It is thought that the Rangers were ordered into the case by Gov. James V. Alfred.

P. W. A. REMINDS DIES COMMITTEE OF LYNCHING

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Whether the Dies committee, which has requested from congress $150,000 with which to continue its investigation of un-American activities in this country, intends to include lynching in its probe, is the subject of a terse comment by Franklin P. Adams (F. P. A.) famed columnist.

In his column, The Conning Tower, of October 11, published by the New York Post, Adams has this to say:

"More money has been requested by the Dies Committee to investigate un-American activities. Such as, for instance, lynching?"

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People twice has written to Representative Dies, chairman of the committee, reminding him that the committee could expose the hidden forces behind lynching if it undertook to investigate the whole field of mob violence in the United States.

Bishop Lawson has been on the air via WBNX every Sunday night for more than a year and his faithful attempts to the popularity of his services. Only recently he received a letter from North Carolina in which a white woman stated she had heard his message, and became converted to the way of the Lord. The church and its prayer are heard on the air every Monday morning at 9 a. m.

There are more than 5,000 members and seemingly all try to get in church each Sunday night. There is a training school, Industrial Union Institute at Southern Pines, N. C., for young boys and girls, which yearly graduates from 10 to 25 students.

Civic League.

A group of Civic minded men, Mr. Smith, Mr. Clayton, Mr. Stantford, Mr. Jones and Mr. Miller, met Wednesday night at the Craig Brothers Funeral Home with the South Indianapolis Civic League. Plans were discussed whereby the people of the southside will extend the civic movement to Norwood, through the leadership of Mrs. Lewis; in West Indianapolis, thru Mrs. Brien and in the South east Indianapolis through Mr. Smith, Lester Craig, president.

Miss Minnie Stephens entertained a group of her friends last Saturday night with a party.

Before any community, successful of otherwise, can be an aid, action of some sort is necessary. Our difficulties and obstacles indicate that we are refusing to accept the new for the old, the good for the better. Our possibilities are limitless. Please attend the Civic meetings and we will GO PLACES.

Library Service Broadened Here

Library stations to be operated from various branches will be established in several sections of the city as a part of the extension program. It was disclosed here this week. Dunbar and Attucks branch libraries will have stations at Hazel Hendricks School 37, Wednesday 1:30 p. m., to 4:30; School 56; Thursday, 3 p. m., to 6; Mae Le-Mar beauty shop, 6:15 to 7:15; in building 18, Lockefield recreation rooms, 828 Blake street and Simpson chapel, respectively. Attend-ants will be WPA workers. Books for juveniles and adults will be included.

A new service is being offered to persons unable because of illness or physical disability to call at the branch or stations. Cards or telephone messages will result in delivery service to shut-ins.

Dunbar stations are in operation now; service at Lockefield and at School 87 are scheduled to begin at a later date, perhaps by the middle of next week.

Aside from the recreational value of the Federation of Associated Clubs' Halloween Saturday evening, October 29th at the Walker Casino, numerous welfare agencies and other welfare movements will be benefited by the outcome. Already memberships have been given to the YMCA, pledges made to the Community Fund and donations made to the Handicapped Division of School No. 26. One hundred percent attendance of the members of the forty-one federated clubs is urged. Cash prizes will be given for the most elaborately dressed, the most original, the funniest, and the most ragged costume. There is a promise of much fun and good music to all those who attend. The admission is 35c.

Mrs. Ethel Ryan is chairman, assisted by Clarence Sansbury, Anna Belle Wynn, Wilbur Telefero, Lucille Jones, James Matthews, Mamie White and Bruce Mason.

The City Choral Union gave a splendid program Sunday afternoon at the Union Baptist church, all who heard them are eager for their return.

BARNES TO HEAR MRS. V. GREER

Mrs. Vera Greer, a member of the Barnes M. E. church, and one of the most popular women evangelists of this city, will preach at Barnes M. E. church, Sunday morning, Oct. 23rd. Mrs. Greer will celebrate her first year in the ministry.

As a member of Barnes church, Mrs. Greer has been one of the best workers in the church and upon her call to the ministry she has made splendid advancement in the field. She is called frequently to fill the pulpits of some of the leading churches and is always enthusiastically received.

The Barnes choir is arranging special music for the services. With her many friends, a capacity house is expected to hear her.

The "Little Men's Club" may have a protest meeting over the old boys invading their secret headquarters.

MITES HELD

Mrs. Narcissus Holt, 55 years old, and resident of this city for 44 years, died at her home last Friday night, 1651 Columbia avenue, after an illness that extended over a period of a year and a half.

Mrs. Holt was born in Columbia, Tenn., but had spent the majority of her life here where she was a member of Allen Chapel. She was a Stewardess of the church and belonged to practically every auxiliary of the church.

Funeral services for Mrs. Holt will be held in conjunction with those of her infant grandson, Frederick Lee Holt, same address, who died this week after an illness of a short duration. He was two months old. The infant is survived by his father, Frank Holt; the mother, Perry Jean Holt; and a sister, Shirley Ann Holt.

The elderly Mrs. Holt is survived by the husband, John Holt; a brother, Rev. N. C. Irvin, Anderson, Ind.; three daughters, Mrs. Eva Buckner, Indianapolis; Mrs. Jessie Rose, Indianapolis; and Mrs. Geneva Ross, Los Angeles; a son, Frank; five nephews, two grand-children, one great-grandchild, one daughter-in-law and two sons-in-law. The double services were conducted from the Allen Chapel, Tuesday at 1:00 o'clock with burial in New Crown cemetery. King and King funeral directors were in charge.

West Indianapolis News

Rev. F. F. Woung and congregation will render service at First Baptist church in West Indianapolis, Sunday afternoon. This service will end a drive that the women of the church have been conducting. Mrs. E. F. Heuter, president. The choir sang at Mt. Pilgrim Baptist church last Sunday. Rev. Gaston formerly of Bridgeport is now pastor of First Baptist church.

Mrs. Curtis Cork of 1325 1-2 S. Pershing avenue entertained the following in their home Sat. Oct. 15 in honor of their two children, Mary Alice and Patricia Ann Johnson; Marlene Oats, Barbara Jean Johnson, Helen and Henrietta Norris, Dorothy and Irma Harris, Vivian Miller, Celestine and Jo Ann Vincent. Those who assist with the children were Mesdames Wellington Beverly, Jr. Thomas Cork, Buford Eckles, Fred Cody, Hubert Norris, Melvin Daniels, Lawrence Miller and Thomas Harrington, Jr. The color scheme was pink, green and white. Many pretty presents were received.

I saw so many folk going in and out of my Father's home I knew someone was ill, but when I got there, to my surprise all were looking at a fish he caught. It weighed 15-12 pounds. I can't catch the smallest cat fish in the sea.

Andrew Golder is home from the hospital. Mrs. Novella Scott has been released also. Mrs. Mary Cotton in Shepard st., is confined to her bed.

WARNING, Don't leave any valuable articles hanging on your clothes line after sundown. Some one stole several fall outfits from Mrs. George Barber on Kappes st., Monday night. Don't YOU be a victim of one of these pre-Halloween pranks. Opportunists make thieves.

The home of Mrs. William Shively on Kappes st., was damaged by fire last week with the assistance of several neighbors she saved her furniture. Defective wiring caused the fire.

Louis Riddley (LD) and Irvin Smith (Beach) are going to kill two birds with one stone, the Matrimony Way. These lovely fowls are none other than the pretty Breckenridge Twins, Vera and Velma, Listen Boys you have to catch the bird before you can sell its feathers, but, I do hope this report is authentic.

Mrs. Coral Stables and Mary Jones were guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Woolridge last Sunday.

YOU ARE INVITED
Housewives, young ladies and brides are invited to visit DOROTHY'S HOSIERY SHOP, 2170 N. Illinois and 2184 N. Talbot for an inspection of the new fall wear. Dorothy wishes her neighborhood friends to know that the shop does not confine itself to women's wear alone, but she carries everything in clothing for men and children also. The public is invited to visit either of the shops.—Pd. Adv.

IN MEMORIAM

WOOD—In memory of Nora Wood who passed away October 27, 1934. When a mother breathes her last farewell,
The stroke means more than tongue can tell.
The world seems quite another place
Without the smile of mother's face.
Sadly missed by
The husband and children.

PAGE—In memory of my beloved husband, William Page, Sr., who departed this life October 20, 1937. One year has passed since that sad night.
When my dear one was called away.
Oh, if I could see his happy face
Or just hear his voice, that meant so much to me.
—Mary Page.

MC CAIN—In loving remembrance of our dear wife and mother, Josie McCain who passed away October 20, 1937.
When the evening shades are falling
And we are sitting all alone
In our hearts there comes a longing
If she only could come home.
—A. G. McCain and children.

PAXTON—In loving memory of my beloved husband who passed away October 20, 1933.
I watch, I wait, I listen
For your voice soft and low,
When from my dreams I waken
To find you have gone before.
—Alice Paxton, wife.

GAINES—In loving memory of Gip Gaines, October 15, 1937.
When brother breathed his last farewell
This stroke meant more than love can tell
The world seemed quite another place
Without the smiles of brother's face.
Sadly missed by
Brothers and sisters.

CORLEY—In loving memory of Dr. Pyneke Elizabeth Corley. The world may change from year to year
And friends from day to day
But never will the one we love
From memory pass away.
—Mrs. Corley and daughter.

I. I—I am asking you concerning my husband. Is his mind bad and what must I do for him?

ANS.—It is most unwise to reply on your own judgment in a case of this kind. Take your husband to a good doctor and let him examine him. He can give you the information you desire as well as instruct you how to treat the condition.

P. C.—Should I leave town immediately? Is it necessary?

ANS.—No. You have swallowed the whole hoke and there isn't one thing to it. Stay where you are.

P. L. C.—Is the work I am doing too hard for me and what does this man I am with intend to do?

ANS.—As long as you remain in good health the work you are doing isn't too hard. But you should save more money. The man you are with has evidently changed his mind about marriage. Talk this thing over and if he doesn't carry out his promise to you, make other arrangements about your future.

M. L. G.—Will I be able to go in training for a nurse when I finish school?

ANS.—It can be easily arranged. The training you will get in the hospital will do you a world of good as well as prepare you to make an honest living.

D. B.—Does the girl I love believe me to be a liar? When I walk her home she stands in the door and looks long directly in my eyes. If we meet at someone's house, as soon as I appear our gazes meet instantly and throughout the evening I look at her and she watches me with tender gaze. Will she ever believe in me?

ANS.—She will yes, but not until you prove to her that you aren't stringing her along. Naturally she can't take you too seriously at such a tender age in life, but she does

Harlem Job Group Asks White Stores 'To Get Right'

NEW YORK, Oct. 21. (By John H. Thompson for ANP)—Promising that unless Harlem banks, trade unions, milk companies and other industries "get right" with the Negro and unemployed by Nov. 5, the Harlem Coordinating Committee for Employment of Negroes would move against them like a mighty army. Chairman A. C. Powell, Jr., opened a momentous mass meeting to a jammed Abyssinian Baptist church, Monday night.

Further declaring that unless $12,000,000 black people in the U. S. come together, "they will be left out in the cold in the present economic set up," Powell said, "the sole hope in trade unions, as in all else, is that we must organize in a solid block."

Among speakers were Dr. H. W. Turner, director of personnel of Consolidated Edison company; Col. Leopold Phillips, president of Up-town Chamber of Commerce; Harold Guinere, organizer of the International Seamen's Union; A. T. Egan, director of New York City department of Commissioners and Assemblyman W. T. Andrews.

The Dr. W. Turner said the Edison company had no prejudice against the Negro worker, he tacitly admitted that few if any white collar jobs were given to Negroes. Employing 400 colored, jobs range from porter, building attendants to foreman and "other responsible positions."

He said average rate of pay was $30 per week of 40 hours and significantly added: "The trouble with the Negro race and unemployment is a lack of qualification and skill. You must educate yourself and apply for jobs for which you are qualified." He concluded by saying Negro jobs are open now, but leaders in the movement point out the fact that the electrical industry is booming due to increased sales of appliances through increased advertising.

M. J. Does my new sweetie love me more than my husband?

ANS.—No, he doesn't. If your husband gets wind of your making friends you will be minus a good husband. Live true to your husband or call it quits for you won't ever be happy if you insist on having both.

S. C.—Is the condition natural that causes my mind to think very strongly of C. H. and feel as though I have heavy heart when I do? Should I ignore him and these thoughts?

ANS.—There isn't anything wrong you just met again and naturally you should give him some thought. Stop worrying and if he seems interested you might acknowledge same. You will not feel this way very long for someone else will come between you.

MORRISSEY PROBES POLICE BRUTALITY CHARGE

A probe, which he promises will go the limit, has been started by Chief of Police Michael Morrissey into the alleged unwarranted and brutal beating of James Hart early Saturday morning. We know the Chief, believe him to be sincere, a fine officer who has done much in the interest of crime prevention and detection for the city at large. One of the fine things he has done was assigning colored officers to police the section in which Indiana avenue lies. Popularity of the police force has grown tremendously because the officers working here have been fine and have done a great job.

Colored officers were demanded in this section because there were too many instances—not often reported—of bullying, brutality and terrorizing by white officers. This condition, except for intermittent outbursts, has not obtained since the first colored officers began working this section.

About 3.25 last Saturday morning six or more white officers who had been assigned a call in the 800 block Indiana avenue were involved in the brutal beating of a man, witnesses declare, was entirely unoffending. The Chief is investigating the affair and we commend his attitude in the matter. We are not forgetful of the many complaints which have been made privately about beatings which, people say, the police have inflicted behind closed doors.

We know and have seen of some manhandling which was not given behind closed doors. We know of reckless policing and apparently unjustified killings. We know of instances in which the police have behaved more like thugs drunk with authority than like protectors of the public interest. We know this type behavior leads to very bad blood between police and the public and sets the stage for riots. There have been several recent instances when trouble boiled dangerously close to the surface—and last Saturday morning was one of the times. We know it must have been rather bad to arouse this community to the pitch it is now—all classes of people demanding that action to protest and halt these outrages be taken.

NAZI'S ARE GIVEN OUR JOBS, STEAL THE NATION'S SECRETS

Nazis must believe this a queer country indeed: we give jobs to them which are denied colored citizens of unimpeachable character and they coyly steal our government secrets and send them home.

Surpassing the Nazis' amazement must be the bitter humor of those millions of Americans tied by prejudice outside the door of opportunity where they wait like faithful old dogs watching for a job scrap to be tossed to them.

Americans have heard with amazement of our carefully guarded secrets being sent abroad, the forgery of President Roosevelt's name in these activities and the bold photographing and other operations at Panama.

Somehow or other we find ourselves unable to mourn overmuch concerning these awful discoveries; the jobs in the first place should have been held by loyal brown Americans. Accordingly, we swallow the bitter pill along with others and at the same time point to a remedy.

PUT ME TO BED
Put me to bed in my long white robe,
So God won't have to dress me again;
Put me to bed in the crown I won,
So God will know I am free from sin.
2.
Put me to bed without sorrow or grief,
For Christ is the flower and I am the leaf;
Put me to bed my friends, my friend
And I'll meet you at the end.

REST
When that far day breaks in the sky,
And breath of mine shall cease
When every limb is stiff and cold
And others find their peace.
II.
When from my body, soul is fled,
And my hands are a stone-like gray
Don't bury me in cool, soft earth
Where I can feel the day.
III.
If I can see thin daisy stems
Like long notes from the flute,
I shall not want to be so still,
Remaining deaf and mute.
IV.
Disappointed my heart will be
In seeing wind and rain,
So bury me in some dark place,
And bind me there in pain.

AMOUS CRUELIS
(Cruel Love)
A Sonnet
Love o' heartless love
You have caused me to suffer so
That even as I gaze at the stars
Above
I have no place, I know not where to go
My soul is sinking in despair
My hopes are gone I have no friend
I try to call his name in prayer
For only he knows of the turmoil within.
I can only cry in agony
Barren is his face, cold are his finger tips
At last peace is coming to me
For yonder on that distant shore
I shall rest from your cruel love forevermore.
—Savannah Forbes.

(Dedicated to my husband
Mr. Esby Etter)
Life is a battle
The day is long and the day is hard,
We are tired of the march and of keeping guard;
Tired of the sense of a fight to be won,
Of a fight to be won
Of days to live through and of work to be done;
Tired of ourselves and of being alone.
Yet all the while did we only see,
We walk in the Lord's own company.
We fight, 'tis He who nerves
our arm;
He turns the arrows that else might harm.
And out of the storm He brings a calm;
And the work that we count so hard to do,
He makes it easy, for He works too.
And the days that seem long to live are His.
A bit of His bright eternities;
And close to our need His helping is.

JULIETTA
The sweetest girl I ever met,
Was lovely little Juliette,
With heart and soul of purest gold,
And depths of love and joy untold.
And when the weary sun had set,
Upon my precious Juliette,
The moon in all his glory bright,
Bent down and kissed her lips goodnight.

She is my darling and my pet,
The charming little Juliette,
Her smile is like a precious gem,
And fills with love to the brim.
I have not found one sweeter yet,
Than my own darling Juliette,
I'm sure that I shall never find,
A girl more lovely sweet and kind.

If Fate and Destiny would let,
I'd have my little Juliette,
Whose love is deeper than the sea,
'Twould bring great happiness to me.

Of all the treasures I could get,
Not one would be like Juliette,
On earth I'm sure there'll never be,
A girl more lovely here than she.

REPENTANCE
O God, the day is gone
And the night... is far spent
Forgive these vain thoughts
Forgive my vanity.
Have mercy upon me
For I have wasted these hours.
Heedlessly, O God, have I watched
The shadows deepen—
Deepen into utter darkness.
Forgive my vanity.
Selah.
Forgive my vanity.
Amen... Amen.

Dark Laughter

By Ol Harrington

"Awright, I'll lend you the two bits, but I wants you to be careful. Don't git hit by no cars or nothin' 'cause I 'spects to git paid back."

Kelly Miller Says...

THE AMERICAN NEGRO'S SPIRITUAL CONTRIBUTION

During the past four hundred years since the African has been in contact with the European in the Western World, the culture of one race had important reaction upon that of the other. The white man has imparted to the Negro his language, literature, industry, manners, habits, and customs, and in a word, his way of doing things. On the other hand, the Negro has exhibited to the white race an object lesson in meekness, humility, long suffering, and forgiveness of spirit, which constitute the galaxy of the Christian virtues and graces.

The white man searches for God on the heights of knowledge, the Negro finds him in the depths of a humble and contrite heart. This plant soul-stuff of the Negro impresses the proud and haughty Anglo-Saxon as an amazing grace; but it exemplifies the Christ mind. "Unless Ye Become as a Little Child Ye Cannot Enter the Kingdom of God." Behold a race beset by every provocation to hatred, and yet without capacity to hate. Booker T. Washington fully presses the moral genius of his race when he says that "No man can be so mean as to make me hate him."

The spirituals which well up from the Negro's soul like the trill from the throat of the bird, constitute his chief contribution to the culture of the human spirit. The ebullition of this blind, half-conscious, thrumming, throbbing, aperture of sound in advance of intellectual formulation, it springs from the heart of the Negro and appeals to the heart of mankind wherever its mission is wafted on the wings of song.

These soulful melodies arising from the low grounds of sorrow are racy of the soil from which they spring. "Dixie," the musical inspiration of the Southern Confederacy, "The Swanee River," "My Old Kentucky Home," and "Carry Me Back to Ole Virginny," all of Negro motif, inspiration and genius, have made the southland ever dear to the memory and imagination. The Bible depicts the soul of the Hebrew Race, as the spirituals that of the Negro, turned wrong-side out. The spiritual kinship of the Negro and the Hebrew grow out of the similar vicissitudes, trials and tribulations through which both people have had to pass.

Marc Connelly could find no better medium through which to dramatize the story of Israel from Egyptian bondage to the Promised Land. Beyond the spiritual kinship of the Negro and the Hebrew, the plaintive soul and plaintive voice of the Negro. Richard B. Harrison could impersonate the Jewish Jehovah without mockery, blasphemy or sacrilege. The Negro translates the Hebrew Scripture in his own vernacular and sings the songs of Zion with spiritual elation and joy. The Spirituals represent the Negro's souls in its serious mood, while rag-time and jazz depict it in the lighter vein of merriment and glee. Mobile Buck, is as instinctive an expression of the Negro's soul as "Swing Low Sweet Chariot" or "Steal Away to Jesus."

THE CASE OF THE SHOP-LIFTER'S SHOE

—By Earle Stanley Gardner.

This book is an enormous treat for those fans of Mr. Gardner's books. He has written a novel that is really interesting from the beginning to the end. It has all the glamour of an evening spent at the movies and all the suspense that one can hold for an evening of delightful reading. This one is concerned with an elderly woman who is psychologically wrong-minded and finds an outlet by shop lifting. She is not needful of the things she steals. She has an eccentric brother who goes on drunken binges and stays that way for several days. Before he gets drunk he has a premonition that he has to get drunk and he takes pains to give his employees work to last for several days. He is a diamond setter and he gives the keys to his sister, Mrs. Sara Bree. She is the shop-lifter who is later accused of taking one Mrs. Ione Bedford's jewels. The outcome of the novel is D. K. The detective again is the one and only Perry Mason. His secretary is still Miss Della Street. Read it!

HERE I STAY—By Elizabeth Coatsworth.

"Here I Stay" is a novel concerning the movement from Maine to the Ohio Reserve that took place a little over a century ago. The name of the time is taken from the novel of a young girl, our heroine, who would not be persuaded to leave her Maine home as the majority of home-owners were persuaded. The Maine families were greatly discouraged by the very cold winters that lasted until May when it was not unusual to find five foot snows in the spring—and the lack of crops, especially their mainstay, corn.

Margaret Winslow, our heroine, was a good girl and a brave girl, who was neither afraid of hard work nor cold weather. She had taken good care of her father until his death. While he lived he had instilled in her being truth, a good foundation of cheerfulness, patience, loyalty and a more than passing interest in worthwhile books.

Margaret Winslow did not really think all of her neighbors were going to pack their household goods and auction off their elder relatives to start on the long trek westward. She was due for a disappointment because that is just what happened. The kind, friendly and fatherly doctor and his wife remained in Maine and were a constant source of enjoyment and pleasure to little Margaret. She met John Grant one fine day and at the first meeting she knew that she was destined to see him again soon and often. The novel ends with a happy ending for John and Margaret.

Elizabeth Coatsworth is the author of many best selling books for young children and is a well-known poet of verse for children. "Here I Stay" will be well received and admired by adults and high school pupils.

CRUISING 'ROUND

(By L. J. MARTIN)

1. Meaning of Words.
2. Four Needs of Business.
3. When Business Had Confidence.
4. Business Careless During 1918-1929.
5. Underlying Cause.
6. Losing Confidence.

DURING Political campaigns meanings of words are hard to understand. Those words most used at the time that lack clarification are—confidence, practical, encouragement, and economy. We go back to the dictionary and find: CONFIDENCE, belief, reliance, trust, faith based on an intimate acquaintance; self-reliance, boldness, assurance; the telling of something privately and trustfully; also the thing thus told a secret.

PRACTICAL—pertaining to, or obtained through experience or use; capable of being put to use; having useful ends in view; useful; inclined to useful action rather than thought in effect; practical joke, a trick, after carefully planned in which some particular person is the laughing stock.

ENCOURAGEMENT—the act of inspiring with confidence; that which invites to action or perseverance; an incentive.

ECONOMY—the regulation and management of means and resources; freedom from waste in the use of anything; thrift; any system of using or managing resources; organization.

NOW WE are told by business men that what the need is these confidence, encouragement, economy and practicality. If we had these four things in their possession, they would end all emergency relief, and other governmental functions by giving the people regular jobs, with regular pay, thus making for permanent and genuine recovery, which means that factories, foundries, mines, stores, mills, farms, building, banking, investing in fact all endeavors of life running in full capacity and all endeavors receiving reward. In short everybody working and everybody happy, so far as their "board and keeps" are concerned. Thus we may rightfully assume that without confidence, encouragement, economy and practicality of business, mill factories, etc., are closed, few or if any working; few if any, happy.

IN ORDER to cure these ailments we must determine first: if business ever had confidence, encouragement, economy and practicality. Second: if finding that business once had these four things, we must then determine: how, when and where they lost them.

IF WE GO back to the period just before the end of the World War, we find that everything was running full capacity, victory was in sight—everybody working everybody happy, business and every one else had confidence. How did they lose it? Too much confidence with no safety-valves—Business would be sold anything—they bought everything—any person with a second-handed generator and a ton of coal could sell them 10 thousand dollars worth of stock in his "International Unlimited Great Western Power and Light Corporation." They raised prices, bought suits of clothing for 5 dollars sold them for 45 dollars, sold veneered furniture as solid oak or mahogany made hosiery at one dollar per dozen pairs, sold them at a dollar apiece—right here in Indianapolis; a passerby sold another passerby a street car rolling along the street. They cheated and got cheated, they robbed and got robbed until the whole unsavory condition burst like a cannon ball.

In 1929 in Wall Street, New York City, this business lost confidence in itself closed down its factories, burst the banks, closed their stores and folded up generally.

Encouragement is the forerunner of confidence, and when business through its own double dealing destroyed confidence in itself, it also took away encouragement, inspiration to do business. Business encouragement means assurance that it can buy for less and sell for more up until 1933. If business lacked encouragement it was their fault for it set its own rules and regulation, was not interfered with.

Business from 1918 to 1929 threw practicality and economy out of the window—they made expansions that were not practical nor economical, threw away millions in vain efforts to "hog" the markets of the world kept down wages, increased production, stocked the warehouse, then laid off men, the very men who were supposed to buy what they had produced—cut production costs by the use of machinery then pocketed all the money the machinery saved them.

OF COURSE there are underlying causes as to why this "too much confidence" on the part of business grew out of the first so called shot in the arm the War finance Corporation under the Harding administration, which was allowed to grow, without safety valves under the "Do as you please" Coolidge administration, the exaggerated pre-election promises and the subsequent landslide election of Mr. Hoover, the growth and expansion of mass production all served as underlying causes for this period of "too much confidence."

SHOULD TUBERCULOUS PERSONS BE MARRIED?

The question of whether or not persons with tuberculosis should marry is one which has had repeated consideration by the medical profession. It is necessary to reconsider such questions again and again in the light of new knowledge that develops regarding the nature of the disease and our methods of controlling it.

Most authorities in the field of tuberculosis would be likely to say that marriage for either sex is unwise until it has been shown by tests that the patient has not had the disease actively for at least two years.

For women there is a special event. She already made her name as not only a capable writer but as a master of the fine art of telling a story in her "other book" "North to the Orient." The former book was the recipient of the prize that goes to the best non-fiction of the year.

Mrs. Lindbergh is rather naive in some ways but in others she is kindly, frank and truthful. She writes with a charm and grace that is hard to equal. Her choice of words and her manner of using that choice has an effect of musical poetry. In my opinion Mrs. Lindbergh is one of the most important and charming women writers of them all. There is a difference in her works. She gives the impression that she is the perfect wife to her world-known husband with out the petty way of bragging.

You will want to be among the first of your friends to get this book and read it, so do not delay calling your Branch for a reserve on it.

With the war scare passed, football now has the limelight.

question which has to do with the possibility of having a child. Most authorities are convinced that any woman who has active tuberculosis should not undertake to have a child. There is great danger to her life and health, not only during the preliminary period before the child is born, but actually during childbirth itself.

There must also be raised the question as to whether or not the tubercular mother can nurse a child should the child be born. Under the kind of close contact that might exist the child might get tuberculosis even if it had been born free of any manifestations of this infection.

It is even a serious matter for a woman with an active stage of tuberculosis to undergo the possibility of becoming pregnant. There are some cases, however, in which the mother may take advantage of such modern treatments of tuberculosis as artificial pneumothorax, or the injection of air into the chest cavity, by which means the lung is collapsed and need not partake in the extra effort involved in the process of birth.

In some 500 cases of tuberculosis among married people which were studied by an Italian investigator, it was found that in nearly one-half the cases the wife had become infected by the husband, whereas only one husband out of eight had contracted the disease from the wife.

This question of marriage for the tubercular is a serious one in which the decision must be made by the doctor in every individual case, on the basis of the facts discovered at the time when the patient is first studied. Every patient should under such circumstances have a complete examination by the doctor, and then have the examinations repeated from time to time in order to detect the disease in its earliest stages.

Dear Students,
Last week I promised to let the students of the John Hope Junior High School, located on Sixteenth and Columbia make their debut in this column. Now in order to fulfill that promise I have them here with me and they're just raring to go. First of all it seems to me and the other dummies around the faculty that the leading ladies' man Professor Nolan Young has gone haywire over a certain young Miss who has him twisted around her little finger. Yesterday he was heard singing "She goes to my head." Now in case you don't know who she is, I'll introduce to you Miss Bessie M. Stevenson.

Well, Well! look coming out of room No. 36! What do you say there, kid? "All I've got to say is that I wonder what Myrtle W. is doing to Robert G. that he doesn't speak to other girls. It sure takes me to get that Robert told." Hi there Jessie R., what's the matter? You look worried. Oh you are only wondering why someone doesn't do something about N. Anthony and R. Kimbrough so that they won't fall out again. They make such a lovely couple. Once upon a time he was also called "the ladies' man" around the John Hope Junior High but the "ladies' man" seems to have died. Tell me kids, is it true that you all are having a big amateur program here, December first, and that Miriam Hill, who has a scholarship at the John

There seems to be somewhat of a conflict here, let's see — one person wonders if Gladys A. can make up her most honorable mind about whom she wants. No one knows whether it's S. S. A. Y., or Eugene C. Another person wonders if Margaret W. will get her ideal boy friend who happens also to be Eugene C., or will Miss Armstrong succeed? It seems as though Miss M. Wilson will be the lucky one. She visits the hospital every visiting day. Luck be with you Miss

Good because free from all harmful bacteria.

Good because the care that enters into its making and the time allowed for it to reach the ripeness of full maturity.

But finally good because it is so delicious to the taste. Try it.

A Study in Expressions

PHILADELPHIA.—Prizes for costumes were being awarded when the photographer caught this vivid picture of expressions on the faces of some of the patrons at the Barn Dance given Friday night for the benefit of the N. A. A. C. P.

Wilsen.
We wonder why our very good friend Cris M. and Tom S. are so thick here of late. Is cupid up to his tricks again? The old saying is "boys and books don't mix." I overheard two conversations in the hall the other day. One, a group of girls who wondered if Eris had a chance to be R. O. T. C. sponsor. The girl's answer was "No," but the other group which consisted of boys answered the question with "Yes." By the way Eris, what happened between you and Charles Tinsley?

Stop! Look! Read! Mentlow Ward and Robert Gill have a message to dispatch for Robert S. It says "There's a certain old lady (in actions) who is a student of Crispus Attucks, and for her benefit I (Robert S.) am publishing this. She is a nosey sort of a person who loves to spread gossip and some day her gossip will spread no more. Get her told, brother, get her told."

Willie Quarrels that slick jitterbug of the East side is still mixed up in his love affairs. Hattie B. and Juanita P. of the Northside are both in love with this fellow. Willie, why don't you stop causing so much confusion over on the Northside. You know that the girls are crazy about you. We of the eastside realize that you're very popular and we're proud of you, but please don't let your popularity run wild. Here's another astander, Arthur R. who has broken a certain North side girl's heart. These east end fellows are too much!

Here's a letter that I received from my good friend — Dorothy Mahone. Since you all are also my good friends (I hope) I'll read it to you. It says: "Dear Joyce, Priday night, October seventh, Foozy found a new girl friend. Her name was J. Walker. I saw him up in the balcony of the Douglas Casino the Sunday after loving up a breeze. I asked him what did he mean because I knew that my good friend would have a heart attack if she knew that he was stepping out on her. He told me that this girl was his cousin, but I know better because cousins don't love like that."

There's a fellow who lives out east by the name of Henry J. He and a girl from the West end of town by the name of Charlotte H. grew up together, but in late years they are separated. Now Charlotte sorta likes her childhood chum so she comes out east with the pretense of visiting her cousin so that she may see him. Cupid! Cupid! where sleepeth thou?

Alexander Brown wonders if Donald Gaspie has enough courage to tell Mary J. D. that he loves her. You'd better hurry Donald, because I hear that she is waiting eagerly for those three words that will mean so much to her.

William Earl Helms, custodian at the Douglas Skating Rink and loved by all the girls especially Mary R., has a wonderful time each night skating and loving. He's a big business man of quality, fine principles and stuff. After I make a remark about a guy like that I have just done, I think it's time for me to say

So Long.

Gossip of the Movie Lots

By Harry Levette for ANP
HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 21. — With the war scare over at least for the time being, all the major and minor studios have plunged into production that many thought would have to be held up while millions of theatre patrons the world over counted their pennies and carefully spent them for bare necessities instead of movie tickets. Both colored companies functioning at present started shooting this week, Million Dollar Productions on "Gang Smashers" with Nina Mae McKinney in the role of a feminine detective who uses not only her beauty and while to run apparently immune vice barons to earth, but also her deftly handled pistol.

Nina is "Laura," a cabaret entertainer, in the new thriller, Lawrence Hawley, Reginald Fenterson, and Edward Thompson have powerful supporting roles.

Hollywood Productions is the other company, recently organized, and starting off at the Murray ranch with "Bronze Buckaroo."

Making new movie history, twenty little colored babies aged from 6 to ten months old worked at Fox Western studio last week in the Jones Family feature, "A Bundle of Joy." They were all selected and cast by Chas. Butler of Central Casting bureau, and all received pay checks of $8.25 per day, whether they knew they were being paid or not. Transportation was furnished by the studio to and from their homes, and trained nurses were with them at all times in accordance with California laws. Hattie McDaniel has an important featured part in the film. Mel St. Clair is the director.

In "Kentucky," at Fox Westwood, a number of well known screen players worked last week including John Lester Johnson, Ed Short, Robert Jackson, Dan Marlowe and Nathaniel Badger.

In "Stand Up and Fight" at M. G. M. Clinton Rossmore, who leaped into the limelight there in "They Won't Forget," has been allotted the feature role for colored. Other colored players in the film include Jesse Graves, Wade Duncan, Ed Allen, Ted Collins, and Jesse Clark.

MISS. MAN VICTIM OF NIGHT TERRORISTS

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 21. (AN P)—Louis Brown, a hard working farmer, was a fairly prosperous and happy man until a few weeks ago when he was made the victim of night terrorism. First his house was mysteriously burned during the night. Then the barn was burned. Louis was then forced to camp out with his family, but his enemies were still unsatisfied, and one night last week they knocked his milk cow in the head and killed her. Only his chickens, his courage, his mule and a horse remained to him after a lifetime of hard labor.

Following close upon the previous events the mule was shot, the horse crippled and the chicken house burned. Louis called the law.

SEARCH WARRANTS.
At common law and by statute reasonable searches of premises are allowable. But the United States Constitution, as well as state constitutions, prohibit unreasonable searches and seizures. Now as a rule, a search warrant, which is an official paper issued by a magistrate directing the party to whom it is addressed to search for and seize the property described therein, usually must direct that the search be made in the daytime. However... in special cases, it may direct a search in the nighttime.

PREMISES MAY BE BROKEN INTO.

But only after a demand of admittance has been made, if they are occupied, and there has been a refusal. Only the place described may be searched. No other part of the premises may be searched. The person must be searched. The person must be touched.

If an arrest is made, mere words do not amount to anything. That is just talking to you. So a person is not under arrest, when an officer says "You are under arrest" not unless he submits. But the moment the officer touches the person, however lightly, he is under arrest. Now if the person should be standing in a room with the door open, the officer may place him under arrest without touching him. Whenever the officer locks the door... The party is under arrest.

ARRESTS MADE IN AN UNLAWFUL MANNER.

Does not entitle the party to a discharge from custody. So don't get this mixed up. But the person arrested has a remedy against the party who arrests him... a right of action against the officer for damages. But the officer's illegal act is no defense to the criminal charge.

PRIVATE PERSONS.

May break into a house and arrest any person who has escaped from lawful custody. But he must make a demand to be admitted and his demand must be refused. In the case of a suspected felon a private person may not break into a house to arrest him. However, he may break in to prevent the commission of a felony, and also to arrest a person for a felony actually committed. But in all cases only after due notice has been refused.

By A. J. Richards
FRANKFORT, Oct. 21.—Homecoming with all its fanfare, its glamour, its excitement is upon us once more. The weary grads, away since the year before, the enthusiastic sports lovers, the "dyed-in-the-wool" Kentuckians, all went their way to Frankfort, the state capital. The occasion? We mentioned it in the first line, but a repetition won't hurt. It is "Homecoming" Day, a day which is self-explanatory—a day on which a great football game is to be played.

What of this year? The opponent of the Kentucky State College "Thorobreds" is the vaunted "Tigers" representing Tuskegee Institute. This will be the second time in three years that the "Tigers" have served in this capacity. This will mark the fifth meeting of the two teams, and as yet, Tuskegee has been unable to chalk up a victory.

In the first meeting in 1934, the Kentuckians won 6-2. In 1935, the Kentuckians spoiled Tuskegee's great Kentucky team steam-rolled over Tuskegee to the tune of 26 to 0. What of this year? Tuskegee at this writing has been defeated twice and tied once.

On paper, the "Thorobreds" seem to be superior to their "Homecoming" foe. But anything may happen. Odds are against the Tuskegee "Tigers," because of tradition. The "Thorobreds" have never lost a "Homecoming" game on Alumni Field. Then, too, a Tuskegee team has never defeated a Kentucky team. All of that means that Kentucky home-comers ought not worry about the "old appellation" being upset on Oct. 22, when Kentucky State vies with Tuskegee in the Homecoming classic.

Visitors, not interested in the game proper, will get their eyes full just by watching Miss Bernice Melton in action. Who is she? None other than "Miss Kentucky" of 1938-39, and being so, she fills a dual role, since she is Miss Homecoming, too. Hailing from Hopkinsville, Kentucky, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Melton, this young lady will add charm, beauty, and finesse to the gala occasion of October 22nd, since she is the proud possessor of those qualities.

Then, the school will be a center of attraction. Home-comers will be able to see the many improvements that have taken place, and are taking place. They will see new old acquaintances, form new ones, and will help spread the fame of the great Kentucky College "Thorobreds" who, in the last four years, have marched to the top in Negro football. A great, a great school, a Kentucky beauty—all combined—will produce a great "Homecoming" game between Tuskegee and Kentucky State on October 22nd.

TWO NEGROES SEE ACTION AS BOSTON HUMBLETS DETROIT

BOSTON, Oct. 21. (ANP)—Lon Montgomery, left halfback, and Jim McMillan, left end, saw action from opposite sides as Boston college nosed out the Detroit university football team, 9 to 6, before 25,000 here Wednesday afternoon. Montgomery played part of the game for Boston while McMillan, a first class wingman, started and starred for Detroit. In addition to snaring passes and playing well defensively, he smashed through to block the Boston try for the extra point following the home team's lone touchdown.

WINTER LEAGUE OPENS AT L. A.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21. (ANP)—From the time that Chief of Police Jas. Davis pitched the first ball officially opening the 1938-39 Winter Baseball league until the end of the first half of a thrilling 10th inning when the Royal Giants broke their 3 to 3 tie with the White Kings, last Sunday's diamond premiere was the greatest in 18 years. A crowd of 5,550 was not only greatly impressed with the elaborate opening ceremonies but thrilled and entertained as never before at the start of any baseball season.

Manager Vernon Green's Royal Giants, known in the Negro National League as the Washington Elites, presented the most powerful well balanced machine that has come to the cost in four years, but they met a tiger in Casey Camp, bell's revamped, rebuilt, and thoroughly reorganized White Kings. Drafted from the major and minor leagues, the white players started off by copping two runs before the Giants got going. It was a pitcher's duel with the famous "Schoolboy Grifith" the Bob Fellers of Negro baseball, facing Lindell, six, both pitchers getting excellent support from their teammates.

Big Jeff and Smith Help Tie Ohio State For N. U.

EVANSTON, Ill., Oct. 21. (ANP)—Although Ohio State and Northwestern battled 60 minutes to a stalemate before 40,000 at Dychs stadium Saturday afternoon, the Wildcat failure to score was not the fault of Bernard Jefferson, triple threat right halfback, or Jim Smith, sophomore left end, who is rapidly becoming one of the best wingmen in the Big 10. Jefferson buried six passes, completing three, and reeled off runs of from three to 14 yards. He punted well while in the game, on several occasions sending the ball out of bounds within the 10 yard line. He also kept his record intact of not having a pass completed in his territory all season and just before the game ended intercepted a final Ohio aerial. Smith played a fine game, harying Buckeye passers on offense and turning in an amazing display of blocking on offense.

Sidat-Singh Puts on Show That Shadowed Holland And Cornell 19-17

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 21. (ANP)—The 25,000 spectators who came to Archbold stadium Saturday were treated to great performance by two of the finest players in college football, Sidat-Singh, Cornell's All-American end, and Sidat-Singh, the Harlemite with the Hindu name, Syracuse won 19 to 17, after Sidat-Singh needed only on try. His first pass was good for 30 yards and the final Orange score.

The winning play occurred with only two minutes left. An intercepted lateral gave Syracuse the ball on Cornell's 30. Sidat-Singh needed only on try. His first pass was good for 30 yards and the final Orange score.

Sidat-Singh, a junior, never played football until last year. On identical the same play, he then led the Syracuse to an upset victory over Cornell. The Harlemite and Sid Luckman of Columbia are generally considered the East's two greatest passers.

Bulter Bulldogs

To Take Road For Buckeyes

Planning their first invasion of the Buckeye conference in recent years as they take on Ohio Wesleyan at Delaware, Ohio, Oct. 22, the Butler university Bulldogs busied themselves in ironing out the difficulties that were evident in last week's tilt with De Pauw university.

The Bulldogs were successful in their second Indiana conference tilt as they defeated the Tigers from Greencastle 12 to 0. The initial score of the game occurred as William Kregg plunged across the goal line from the six inch line, climaxing a long drive featuring the spectacular running of Frank Welton and Tom Harding. Kregg also scored the second marker on a perfectly executed pass from the port side arm of Robert Connor.

Following the Ohio Wesleyan game the Bulldogs will be seen in action at Crawfordsville, Oct. 29 against their bitter rivals, the Wabash Little Giants. This will be the last state game of the season for the Bulldogs. They will meet Western State Teachers college at Indianapolis, Nov. 5th and Washington of St. Louis there, Nov. 12.

Mrs. Jefferson, who has been confined to her bed in St. John's hospital for some time, has returned to her home early this week. J. W. Geater, the efficient leader of the Community center, was con-completed passes, the last good for 19 yards and a touchdown. But Cornell immediately bounced back with a touchdown. The game then had only five minutes to go. Syracuse got the oval on its own 31 and again the Harlemite went into action. On two successive plays, Sidat-Singh hurled the Orange to its second six pointer.

The winning play occurred with only two minutes left. An intercepted lateral gave Syracuse the ball on Cornell's 30. Sidat-Singh needed only on try. His first pass was good for 30 yards and the final Orange score.

Sidat-Singh, a junior, never played football until last year. On identical the same play, he then led the Syracuse to an upset victory over Cornell. The Harlemite and Sid Luckman of Columbia are generally considered the East's two greatest passers.

Lou Montgomery, 170 lbs., Boston college sophomore who promises to out-sparkle Ozzie Simmons, was cheered by 20,000 people here when he made his varsity debut against Detroit. You'll hear more about Montgomery and of course you know that Pat Hanley's Boston university Terriers have two colored guards, Chet Smith, originally a tackle; and Roland Bernard who was originally a center. Coming into Harvard we list freshman Alexis, a Southern student who attended Exeter academy and is trying for halfback. Next year we expect young Jackson, son of Harvard's track star, T. L. Jackson, now of Chicago, to also enter Harvard along with Ray Guild, son of a Cambridge attorney. Jackson plays end now for Andover Academy and Guild is, like Jackson, a track star, but Ray is a halfback.

It's still too early to talk All-American but from the expressions of the committee members from here to Texas we're going to have a solid eleven. And I still believe any one of our five NNAA teams could have met the Chicago Bears on a more even footing.

'Force Trim' 'Skegee' 25-6 In Night Football Classic

WEST VA. TOPS MOREHOUSE 14-6

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 21. (Special)—Two mighty teams clashed at Ponce de Leon Park when a powerful West Virginia State grid machine raced its way to a 14 to 6 victory over the formidable Maroon Tigers of Morehouse college. West Virginia demonstrated its offensive power through a blasting first half drive that netted two touchdowns. Slashing 29 yards around the left end and on an intercepted pass in the first quarter, Burris placed the ball on the Morehouse 20-yard line. A pass from Burris to Hale was completed for 18 yards. Burris scored on the next down. Burris was destined to score again in the second quarter when Chapman, Yellowjacket center, recovered Swartz' fumble on Morehouse' 5-yard line. After each touchdown Hale sent the ball through the uprights for the extra point.

Moving from their own twenty five yard line to the West Virginia State two-yard line on a series of passes, Tim Wilson, hard-running Morehouse fullback, plunged the Yellowjackets line for the only Maroon tally of the day.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21. (ANP)—With Arthur Brown and Pershing Norris pitching strikes, the Wilberforce university Bulldogs buried Tuskegee's Tigers under a 25-6 touchdown avalanche before 10,000 rabid spectators Friday night in the first nite game between the two schools at Soldiers' field.

By playing wide open football, the two teams treated the on-lookers to the best game yet seen in the eight year old series. Brown and Norris hurled 25 aerials, completing 11, while Tuskegee's backs, without a first class passer among them, heaved 20 with a grand total of only two completed.

Tuskegee dominated play in the first quarter, running up four first downs to one for the Ohioans, but in the second Wilberforce opened up and scored three touchdowns, with receivers repeatedly outdistancing the sluggish Alabama backs.

After suffering a 15 yard penalty that set them back to their 20, Art Brown, the husky quarterback who hails from Philadelphia, reeled off a run of 12 yards before taking to the air. One pass was ruled completed on interference, and then Brown tossed one to Bernard Proctor, right half, for 12 yards and the initial score. A few minutes later Brown hurled a 30 yard aerial to Thomas Brooks, right end, on the Tiger five yard marker. James Hart smashed it over in two tries. With Norris replacing Brown, the Bulldogs went over again on a 20 yard aerial to James Price, half back, who ran 30 yards for the score. Just before the half ended, the Abbotemen brought the crowd to its feet with a 50 yard pass completion but the next toss was intercepted.

In the third quarter, Norris passed to Brooks on the Tuskegee one but the Southern line braced and after four smashes the ball was still a yard away from pay dirt. But a few minutes later, Norris again connected with a touchdown heave, this one to Brooks good for 30 yards.

The one Tiger touchdown came in the final two minutes of the game when Robert Moore, right half back, intercepted a pass and ran 65 yards down the West sidelines. Tuskegee threatened again just before the final gun sounded on a pass completion.

Neither side could gain consistently on the ground, although once or twice Wilberforce backs broke away for lengthy jaunts. Tuskegee, which seems to be suffering a famine in good material, blocked poorly for its ball carriers.

Statistics showed the victors making 11 first downs to eight for Tuskegee, fumbling three times to once for the Southerners, and intercepting four passes to three for the losers. The Bulldogs were penalized a total of 80 yards to 15 for the Tigers.

MAD MAGICIANS DOWN K. C. 13-0

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 21.—The Knoxville college Bulldogs were unable to stop the S. I. A. C. championship march of the LeMoyne College Yellow Jackets as they were humbled in their first home game of the season to the tune of 13-0. However, the stubborn resistance of the K. C. eleven shows that they are a team that will hear watching in Southern Conference circles this year.

LeMoyne scored in the first and fourth quarters, Smith, star halfback, carrying it over for both tallies. The first score came as the results of a sustained eighty yard drive, with Smith finally carrying it over from the Knoxville 16 yard line. The name "Mad Magicians" came to the minds of the fans in the fourth quarter when the LeMoyneites opened up on their lateral to score the last touchdown of the afternoon. Pugh intercepted a Bulldog pass and raced 20 yards before lateraling it to Smith who raced 60 yards for the score.

Knoxville lost two golden opportunities to score. Frazier failed to hold a pass which came to him deep in LeMoyne territory; and later in the game, the Bulldogs were held for downs on the six yard line.

No Ball Game Joe Louis Sued

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21. (ANP)—Joe Louis, world's heavyweight champion and owner of the softball team, "The Brown Bombers" was handed a legal blow Friday by Marty Fleider, softball promoter, who asserted that the fighter repudiated a contract to have his softball team play here Oct. 20. The promoter demanded $8500 damages; $3,000 as anticipated profits; $5,000 for injury to his reputation; and $650 expenses.

Beating the Gun

(By Alvin Moses for ANP)

SPORT EDITORIAL
NEW YORK, Oct. 21. — Saturday night at Rockland palace we watched Otis Thomas, an awkward converted southpaw, stumble through 10 hard fought but colorless rounds to win the duke over tough Yustin Struts... the fighter who walks like a mountain. But strangely enough, our mind was not on boxing despite the thrilling encounter put on by John Henry Thomas, rising young Pittsburgh welter who battered Louis Emanuel of Porto Rico until referee Young Otto halted the affray after 1 min. 31 seconds of the fifth round of a scheduled six rounder. Sitting in our customary seat at the ringside... we tried to get into our head... WHY ALL THE EMPTY SEATS?????

ONE OF CITY'S BEST CLUBS.

Call to mind any night club you choose in this metropolitan area and you'll be hard put to name a better one from the standpoint of appointment and clear visibility from any section of the house. Add to this the management of the club... men who know the fight game from all angles who are desirous of giving local fans the very thing they've wanted and called for...

MIXED ATTRACTIONS IN WHICH THE BOYS ARE PAIRED AS NEARLY EVEN AS POSSIBLE, and you have the full picture of the New Rockland Boxing club—15th street and Eighth Avenue. The one catch in all that we've tried to tell you fight fans is this...

"THE CLUB IS NOT THE PROPERTY OF MESSRS. BROWN, WEINBERG (silent partner), HEY, DORN, FINLEY WILSON, OR MAURIE WAXMAN... BUT IT IS YOUR OWN COMMUNITY CLUB THAT YOU ARE ASKED TO PATRONIZE AND SUPPORT AS LONG AS YOU FEEL THAT YOU ARE GETTING "An even shake of the dice"... and we claim, ... THAT IS WHAT YOU ARE GETTING?"

You readers should know after all these years that NO MAN buys the personal opinion of this commentator. Maurie Waxman, press relations man of the club, will doubtless be the most surprised man extant when he picks up the copy of what is usually... our weekly release. Many white patrons of the club have asked why Harry Balough is not there this season? The answer we give to that one is: "Because the owners of this club have seen fit to try out a clever youngster of your race whom the State Athletic Commission recently commissioned."

MIKE JACOBS WOULDN'T NOR COULD HE FOR LONG... operate the Garden or the Hippodrome, on a weekly losing basis. And it cannot be intelligently expected that these men can, or WILL, continue to carry "A White Elephant" for long.

Frankly, I am darn sick and tired of the age worn slur incriminating "All Harlemites" under the general heading: "THOSE PEOPLE NOT ONLY WON'T SUPPORT THEIR OWN... BUT AFTER YOU GIVE THEM WHAT THEY CLAIM THEY'VE BEEN FIGHTING FOR ALL ALONG... THEY STILL WON'T DIG UNTIL IT HURTS?????"

When Billy Brown fails to do as he advertises... GIVE HIM HELL IN NO UNCERTAIN TERMS. On the other hand, he and his associates deserve the support of the entire sporting fraternity when they provide you with a run for your dollar. I'm thinking chiefly of the hundreds of crack Negro boxers who literally are left out in the cold except for the presence of this club conducted two seasons by Al Douglas, and now by Messrs. Brown and Heydorn, et al.

BRONZEVILLE IN INDIANAPOLIS

THE FIGHT MUST GO ON . . .
Negroes in Indianapolis cannot afford to back up now in their fight for JOBS under the leadership of a determined Citizens' Committee . . . a courageous group of Bronzevilleans with a determination to win more jobs for the group in all fields of business and industry. The 47,000 Negroes residing in this city are spending annually millions of dollars for the many necessities of life. They feel that they should be given some of this money back in the way of employment. Since they do consume some of everything sold in Indianapolis, they feel that they should be employed to sell some of these things to their own people. There are hundreds of JOBS available in the laundry, dry cleaning, beer, whiskey, meats, groceries, furniture and other allied fields. What we need to do is get busy and demand some of these JOBS as men and women and not as children. We could have forced more Negroes into JOBS as Beer salesmen if some of us hadn't turned SOFTIES. . . . From now on let's try and be real he-men.

DR. J. C. AUSTIN TELLS WHY RACE NEEDS MORE JOBS . . .

Dr. J. C. Austin, pastor Pilgrim Baptist Church, Chicago, militant and modern crusader for Negro equal rights, speaking before a crowded auditorium at the Newark, N. J. High School last Thursday, dauntlessly described the plight of the Negro as a job seeker. Dr. Austin captivated the audience when he made known that not a piece of his apparel was bought from a store not employing a Negro. In his discourse, the great churchman went on to say, "The Negro has got to stay together regardless of complexion or color. No Negro doctor or lawyer, should expect the Negro masses to support him when he refuses to patronize the smallest Negro-owned business. Every Negro should make his dollar do a double job, buy him merchandise, and get a job for some colored man or woman. We hope for our redemption to come by way of some emancipator, but it will only come by our own efforts."

"We don't rise by accident, but by our own efforts," shouted Dr. Austin. He added: "Nervous and fearful people will not rise. Don't be a coward. In order for the race to succeed in their fight for more jobs, they must adhere to the law that governs man."

Strong words indeed. But the kind of words needed in this man's town to give some of our people the necessary backbone to carry on. This fight for jobs is not a one-man fight. They realize that this is their economic salvation. Any reader of this newspaper can look around him and see any number of places that should be employing Negroes. Watch the Beer taverns on Senate Ave. for Jobs. . . . They all should be employing Negro bartenders. . . . They are crowded every night with Negroes. Watch your laundry wagons, ice wagons, beer wagons, and other trucks and wagons delivering every known commodity in Negro neighborhoods. Watch the Negroes with whom you spend your money. See that he, too, spends his money with companies employing Negroes. THIS FIGHT FOR JOBS MUST GO ON—AND WITH YOUR 100-PERCENT SUPPORT WILL WIN.

POLITICS . . . YEAH MAN . . .

The political season is upon us. Men, white and black are beginning to extol the virtues of their respective candidates. Some are arguing that the great Democratic party is the one to support. Some are contending that the great Republican party is the whole cheese. Somebody is bound to be right. November the 8th will determine the winner. As a busy body on the sidelines while the battle rages on all fronts we can only hope for the best. Not being on any of the projects nor feeding from the trough, we can only hazard a guess in this great conflict. Whatever the outcome, we expect to carry on. We have always hoped to witness an old-time election, one where men march, fight and fall out. The kind that graced the great American stage in years ago. But, seemingly, we are in for a disappointment. Judging from the present ballahoo, this election is going to be a fizzle so far as our expectations is concerned. Nevertheless, we hope to be in the midst of fray DONATING our one vote for those men whom we believe should be given hundreds of dollars of the tax payers' money during the next two years. After all we are supposed to be citizens of this community, and as such we should contribute something towards helping the other fellow keep his job. This, too, my friends is a fight for jobs. Everybody wants a job except the noble Sons of Ham. Those of us who sit idly by and see the election go the wrong way should blame no one for our shortcomings. Those citizens that are interested enough to get out and fight for their candidates should be rewarded in some wise. Those of us who stay at home on election day should not utter a single squawk. Men and women in Marion county will get out of this election only what they put into it. Consequently it behooves all of us to go out on election day and voice our sentiment one way or the other. There are some high class candidates on both tickets. Some of them are worthy of your support. Some are not. You should study the records of the many candidates before casting your vote. There are several deserving Negro candidates on both tickets. Some will win and some will lose. It is up to you to decide the ones you want to support. As for this writer, we are hoping that both parties put on an old time election rally with all the trimmings, so as to stir up the fight in us before casting our vote election day. We like to go to the polls full of that 'pep' that makes men argue, disagree and still be friends. Give us that old time election any day—yessiree! THINGAMIGIGS. . . .

Rumor has it that a certain Colored gent has leased one of the downtown theatres, and will open same for the general public as a vaudeville house.

Our good friend Gerald Porter has entered upon the journalistic sea with the Metropolitan Post. . . . We hope for him a safe and sane journey over the turbulent waves of journalism. . . .

COCA-COLA CO. PROGRAM IS WELL RECEIVED

To confirm reports that his radio programs are an impartial blend of old and new favorites, Singin' Sam, featured artist of "Refreshment Time," combines on his program for this week the Scotch "folk-song" Loch Lomond and the George M. Cohan tune "Give My Regards to Broadway" with new popular songs such as Cole Porter's "At Long Last Love" and the Gordon-Revel number "I've Got a Date With a Dream." His complete offerings for the week follow:

Monday, October 24 — "April Showers," "Hearts Are Never Blue in Blue Kalua," "Silver Bell," and "Loch Lomond."

Tuesday, October 25 — "She is the Sunshine of Virginia," "There's a Far Away Look in Your Eyes," "Give My Regards to Broadway," and "Swinging in the Grapevine Swing."

Wednesday, October 26 — "Dinah Lou," "At Long Last Love," "By the Sycamore Tree," and "Sunrise and You."

Thursday, October 27 — "I'll Take You Back If You Want to Come Back," "I've Got a Date With a Dream," "So Long, Mary," and "I'll Take You Home Again Kathleen."

Friday, October 28 — "Roll On You Mississippi, Roll On," "There's a Ranch in the Rockies," "The Love Nest" and "Good-bye, Sweetheart, Good-bye." "Refreshment Time with Singin' Sam" is sponsored by The Coca-Cola Bottling Company and is heard daily, Monday through Fridays, over Station WIRE at 11 A. M., o'clock.

VIVACIOUS LADY STARTS SUN. AT HILL'S INDIANA

Making notable use of a setting rarely used in films, much of the action in "Vivacious Lady," Ginger Rogers and James Stewart picture, which starts Sunday at Hill's Indiana theatre for a 4-day run, takes place in a quiet little college town a short distance from New York City, but a million miles from Broadway.

The traditional dignity and academic atmosphere of the campus is brought out in many sequences laid in the class-rooms and laboratories of the college, and in the president's office, and these contrast uniquely with the gay, night-club setting, where the story begins and ends.

Ginger Rogers and James Stewart are co-starred in this romantic comedy, which traces the marital problems of a young botany professor and the night-club entertainer. When they return to the groom's home in the staid college community, and endeavor to keep their marriage secret by living apart, hilarious complications develop.

POPULAR MAESTRO WAS HIT AT FAMOUS SUNSET TERRACE

Don Albert and his orchestra, the band that set this man's town afire several weeks ago with that popular brand of torrid music will invade Naptown for a one night dance engagement in Walker Ballroom Sunday, Oct. 30. A mammoth and spectacular floor show accompanies the band. A real hal-loween party is in store for those dance lovers who enjoy a rippling good time. The band comes direct from Red Gables, where they were rated as the best drawing band to play the spot in many months.

Five cash prizes will be awarded for the best and most original costume. Already local dance lovers are making preparations to outfit themselves in rip-tearing costumes that are sure to set this man's town on edge. The first 600 tickets are now on sale at 50 cents. Championship Jitterbug Contest At Douglas Skating Rink Tues., Oct. 25

A championship jitterbug contest offering a silver trophy and $25.00 in cash prizes to the winners will be held at the Douglas Skating Rink Tuesday, October 25. The elimination contest starts promptly at 7:30 p. m. Due to the fact that this new dance sensation has gripped the nation from coast to coast, and created so much interest in the larger cities in America, the sponsors decided at the last minute to offer this contest as an open affair, where everybody would be eligible to enter. Contestants can register at Cotton Club, Danny's Dreamland, and Izak's Tavern. Free refreshments. Admission Free with ticket.

The affair is sponsored by The Democratic Progressive Club. The cash prizes will be donated by Clyde Karrer and J. W. Peden, president and secretary of the club. Al G. Feeney, Democratic Candidate for Sheriff, and sports commentators, has donated a 24-inch silver trophy which is the first prize. A similar contest was held recently in Harlem and created so much interest that it was necessary to transfer the contest to Madison Square Garden to accommodate the large crowd. The trophy will be on display in The Indianapolis Recorder show window, Friday. A capacity crowd is expected to attend the affair. Follow the red flares to Douglas Skating Rink Tues., Oct. 25.

Helen Carter, Former Songstress With Tiny Bradshaw's Ork, Slaying Em at Local Cotton Club

POPULAR SONG DELINEATOR IN SECOND WEEK AT JOY SPOT

Helen Carter, song delineator formerly with Tiny Bradshaw's band, that solidly sent local dance lovers at Denver Ferguson's Sun. set Terrace, is a killer-diller at the ritzy Cotton Club nightly. The femme songstress has kept the spot jammed to the rafters during the past two weeks. She is rated as a rare find by Georgia Boy, popular emcee and a top-notch entertainer in his own right! The Wisdom Bros. orchestra continues to furnish the music. The band has added a couple of new players, and their style of music is taking Naptown by storm. You are always invited to come out and enjoy a real night of pleasurable entertainment in Naptown's ritziest after-yawning rendezvous. The nightery where all Naptowners are made welcome.

TODD DUNCAN, J. R. JOHNSON IN GERSHWIN MEMORIAL

Hometown Boy

R. TODD DUNCAN

By Lou Layne
George Gershwin, whose musical compositions bear the unmistakable Stamp of Americanism, was influenced to a large degree by the Negro idiom. That is incontrovertible fact. It is only natural, therefore, that in a collection of tributes to that great composer whose untimely demise shocked the nation little more than a year ago, that flavor should be preserved. This was only too evident to Merle Armitage, California impresario, to whose care was entrusted the editing of an impressive memorial to Gershwin in the form of a volume of tributes written by the virtuoso-composer's close friends and associates; for when the book was published last Tuesday ("George Gershwin"), Longmans, Green and Company, New York, $5). It included the names of J. Rosamond Johnson, one of the foremost of our exponents of that Negro idiom, and Todd Duncan, whose remarkable singing voice and histrionic ability have won for him world-wide acclaim as a true interpreter of that music. Johnson and Duncan (both of whom are, incidentally, outstanding members of the Negro Actors Guild of America) were closely allied with Gershwin, principally through the Gershwin-Heyward folk-opera "Porgy and Bess," and it is mainly of that association they have written.

Names easily recognized everywhere have combined to produce this volume, from Irving Berlin, representing Tin Pan Alley, to Walter Damrosch and Serge Koussevitzky, conductor of the Boston Symphony orchestra. Also included are the contributions of Paul Whitman (another Guild member), Olin Downes, outstanding music critic; Arnold Schoenberg, modernist classical composer, Rudy Vallee, Leonard Lieblich, Jerome Kern, Du-Bose Heyward, Sam H. Harris, Reuben Mamoulian, Eva Gauthier, and Ferde Grofe. In all there are about 36 of these memoirs, not to mention two reprints of articles by Gershwin himself, which combine to give well-rounded picture of the man, the composer, and certainly not the least in importance, the artist.

Just as the Negro influence is present in his music, so too it is with his paintings, illustrations of which are included in the volume. This is borne out by his canvas titled "Negro Child," done in 1933, and "Negro Sculpture," of a year later. Particularly forceful of his brush works are portraits of Schoenberg, Kern, one labeled simply "Emily."

Satchmo Armstrong Weds Chorine in Texas

COUPLE FETED IN NEW ORLEANS

HOUSTON, Texas, Oct. 20. — A flourishing romance of thirteen years came to a fitting climax in "Heavenly Houston," Tuesday afternoon, when the famous "King of Trumpet," Louis Armstrong, slipped away from his admiring public and quietly made Miss Alpha Smith, former chorus dancer "his own" in a ceremony performed at the Civil courts building with Justice of the Peace Thomas M. Maes reading the service. Only a few band members and friends were present. The bride and groom were informally attired in navy blue slacks. The couple were formally feted in New Orleans, with Paul Barbarin, "The drummer," as master of ceremonies.

Stronger Than Words

PHILADELPHIA.—These kiddies haven't learned I, yet,—that quack science is every whit as dangerous as quack medicine, but they will, POSSIBLY, in time.

Now they romp and play together, knowing nothing of false biologic premises regarding "inferior" and "superior" races. None of them has learned to repeat in long, vague scientific words what the prejudiced hearts of their elders would have them believe about racial differences.

If Lothrop Stoddard, high priest of racial baloney, had been adopted by a Negro in equatorial Africa at the age of these tots he would probably not be able to read, to drive a car, to wear a tuxedo jacket—or to rant about "the new scientific realism."

He would probably be a third-class medicine man or rain maker, called upon by the ignorant in an emergency.—OCE.

RULES FOR HEART THROB COLUMN

1. Letters to pals must contain a three-cent postage stamp for postage. There is no charge for publishing the letter.
2. Addresses of pals cannot be given out until the first letter has gone through the column. After that I will be more than glad to send the address of the pen pal to anyone wishing it.
3. Make your letter as interesting as possible so that the pen pal to whom you write will be anxious to correspond with you. Although it is seldom that a pen pal does not answer the letters he or she receives, I cannot guarantee you a reply. I can only assume the responsibility of passing your letter on.
4. Please do not ask me to enter into personal correspondence with you; that is impossible.
5. Address your letter to the Heart Throb Editor, The Indianapolis Recorder, 518-20 Indiana Avenue.

Indianapolis, Indiana

October 10, 1938.

Dear Tillie:

I have read your column and decided to write you. I am a widow, 32 years old, light brown skin and have red (sort of sandy) wavy hair. I weigh about 148 pounds. I do not smoke, drink, curse or go to dances. I would be glad to know a man who is qualified. I am hoping I will get an answer from you.

Yours truly,

The Lonesome Pine.

Indianapolis, Indiana

Dear Tillie:

I'm a lonesome young man. I am 27 years old, 6 feet 4 and 1/2 inches tall, weighing 164 pounds, light brown skin, gray eyes and black hair. I am desirous to have a companion who is at least 5 feet 6 inches, fair complexion, good education with a good personality and above all does not smoke or drink; likes to dance, read, play cards, and attend shows. Anyone wishing to correspond may do so.

A. O.

Indianapolis, Indiana

October 10, 1938.

Dear Tillie:

I am a girl from the country. I am 28 years of age and want a real good companion, husband preferred from the ages of 30 years to 50 years. He must be handsome and loving because I like a man not too set in his ways. He must not drink, except to be sociable on parties, but never to an excess. A man who is willing to make a living and give me a chance to attend school and take a course. I work hard, am a good cook and can sew. He must enjoy church as I do. From a girl, who is longing for a Real Husband.

Mrs. C. W. Chinn and granddaughter of Toledo, Ohio, will leave for their home next week.

Rev. Skelton, district superintendent, will be in this city this week. The Willing Workers club of the Methodist church will sponsor the program next week.

A program, sponsored by the Senior and Freshmen class of Broadway High school, will be given Tuesday, October 25th.

Rev. C. W. Chinn will be out of the city this week.

Samuel H. Humes was also operated on for appendicitis last week at the Rings Daughters hospital.
